

Young folks gave Mr. and Mrs. Ole Roberts a lively charivari Monday night, at their home in the country. Of course they were treated mighty nice by Mr. and Mrs. Roberts.

Rev. G. W. Ayers has three wedding ceremonies to perform on Christmas day, and Rev. J. W. Sapp at least one. As yet the editor hasn't been spoken to to perform any ceremony, but still has hopes.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Titus came down from Syracuse Saturday morning. Albert returned Wednesday morning but his wife will visit her sister, Mrs. Elmer E. Allen, until after the holidays. They expect to move to Colorado next month.

Miss Grace Sanders of London precinct, who for four months has been teaching school near Halsey, Blaine county, Nebr., returned home Saturday for the holidays. With her father G. E. N. Sanders she drove down to Nemaha Sunday to see her grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Sanders.

C. C. Kite of Bracken went to St. Joe with a load of cattle, one of hogs and one of sheep Monday evening, returning Wednesday morning. He says these prosperous times are hard on democrats. He got $16 less for his car load of sheep than he paid for them two months ago, and his other stock sold at proportionate prices.

Twenty-five of the friends of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Frazier planned to give them a surprise Thursday evening of last week, that day being the doctor's birthday. It was a surprise on Mrs. Frazier all right, but the doctor "caught on" about a half hour before the friends gathered. A very pleasant evening was spent. Fresh oysters, brought by the guests, were served.

Johnny Argabright, son of W. S. Argabright, will certainly make a corn shucker if he keeps on. On Thanksgiving day and the two days after, there being no school, Johnny went out in the field and shucked corn for John I. Dressler, making $9.09 in the three days, getting in 202 bushels, receiving 4 1-2 cents a bushel for shucking. This is pretty good for a boy who is only 13 years old and who weighs only about 75 pounds.

The Methodist ladies' aid society are collecting old papers, as they want to make a shipment to a factory as soon as they can get enough together. They request friends of the church to save all old papers of any kind, so long as they are not dirty nor greasy. Let the members of the society know and they will call for them. They want to collect a car load as soon as possible. Help the ladies out and at the same time get rid of your old papers.

Mother Is Dead

Mrs. Julia M. Sanders, mother of the editor of The Advertiser, died at her home in Nemaha at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday, Dec. 18, 1907, aged 69 years, 6 months and 19 days. Mother is dead. The kind, loving mother, who has watched over us from infancy, who was always tireless in caring for us in sickness, who rejoiced in all of our happiness, and mourned with us in all our afflictions—who always was ready to respond to the call for help, not only from her children, but from any one else—the unselfish helpful mother has left us.

Mother had been in poor health for about eight months, suffering from cancer or tuberculosis of the liver—the physicians are undecided which. For over two months she was bedfast. She was always patient, thoughtful of the welfare of others, and at all times thankful for all that was done for her.

Julia M. Hickman was born in Hamilton county, Ohio, May 29, 1838. When six years old she removed with her parents to Shelby County, Ohio. In 1853 she moved to Edgar County, Illinois. In April, 1854, she was united in marriage to Thomas N. Sanders, being then not quite sixteen years old. In 1856 they moved to Nebraska, crossing the river at Brownville, and she has made her home in this state ever since. Dec. 28, 1885 her husband died. Since then she has made her home with her sons, going wherever she was needed worse. For the past four years she has lived with the editor of this paper, looking after his comfort and welfare at all times. Mother has been a member of the Methodist church for over fifty years. Her home was always open to the Methodist ministers, and not only to them but to the ministers of any other church, and to any one who needed help or care. She held many official positions in the church, and for years was a teacher in the Sunday school. She was a member of Nemaha Chapter No. 76, Order of Eastern Star, and for almost four years had been treasurer of that lodge.

The funeral services, conducted by Rev. G. W. Ayers, were held at the home Friday, Dec. 20th, at 10:30 a. m., after which the body was taken to Brownville and laid to rest beside the husband and children who had preceded her to the better world.

To Mr. and Mrs. Sanders were born seven sons and one daughter. Five sons are yet living—W. W. Sanders of Nemaha, George E. N. Sanders of London precinct, Edward E. Sanders of Spickard, Mo., John G. Sanders of Red Lodge, Mont., and Carl E. Sanders of Garretson, S. D. There are fifteen grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

G. F. Larimore has disposed of his restaurant and lunch room and already moved onto his farm near Stella. John Jack from north of town is the new proprietor. Humboldt Leader.

Mr. Ole Guy Roberts and Miss Eisie May Kerker were married Sunday, December 15, 1907, at 5 o'clock p. m., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kerker, in Nemaha, Nebr. Rev. G. W. Ayers, pastor of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony. After congratulations an elegant supper was served. Only members of both families and Rev. and Mrs. Ayers were present.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kerker and is one of the very best young ladies in the whole country. The groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts and is an enterprising and industrious young farmer. They have a large number of friends who wish them an abundance of happiness and prosperity, in which good wishes The Advertiser force most heartily joins.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts gave the newly married couple an infair dinner Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts began housekeeping Monday, on the home farm four miles southwest of Nemaha, Mr. Roberts having bought the furniture last week and had it installed and the house put in readiness for his bride.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasantly delightful. Gently though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. If it's painful periods with women, same cause. If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure. Bruise your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
